HUMAN RIGHTS COMMITTEE
PROCEDURE OF INDIVIDUAL COMMUNICATIONS UNDER THE OPTIONAL
PROTOCOL

8 June 2021

Dear Sir,

We have the honour to inform you that your communication dated 7 June 2021, which you submitted to the Human Rights Committee for consideration under the Optional Protocol to the International Covenant on Civil and Political Rights on behalf of Mr. Alex Nain Saab Moran, has been registered as communication No. 3953/2021. You are kindly asked to refer to this registration number in any future correspondence. You are also invited to direct any future correspondence to the Petitions and Urgent Actions Section of the Human Rights Treaty Bodies Branch of the Office of the High Commissioner for Human Rights, through the following e-mail address: petitions@ohchr.org.

Interim Measures

Pursuant to rule 94 of the Committee's rules of procedure, the State party has been requested to refrain from extraditing Mr. Alex Nain Saab Moran to the United States of America while his case is under consideration by the Committee or until further notice. The State party has been further requested to take all necessary measures to ensure access to appropriate health care for the author, preferably by independent and specialized physicians of his choice. This request is made on the basis of the information contained in the author's submission. The Committee may review its decision on the basis of the information provided by the State party and the author.

Registration of the case

In accordance with rule 92 of the Committee's rules of procedure, a copy of the communication has been transmitted to the State party today, with the request that any information or observations in respect of both the question of admissibility and the merits of your communication should reach the Committee no later than 8 February 2022. Any reply from the State party will be communicated to you in due course to enable you to comment thereon, if you so wish. Please note that all deadlines for observations have been extended by 2 months in light of the spread of COVID-19. The State party has therefore been granted an exceptional deadline of eight months.

Please be aware that final decisions adopted by the Human Rights Committee are made public. Therefore, if the author wishes for his identity to not be disclosed in the final decision, you are kindly requested to so indicate as soon as possible. Kindly note that, due to the level of publicity the Committee's decisions usually receive (including dissemination via Internet, which thus makes the correction and/or deletion of data circulating online virtually impossible), it may not be possible to satisfy requests for anonymity submitted after the publication of the Committee's decision. The Committee shall not be responsible to the author in any manner for any inconvenience, arising out of their failure to notify the Committee in a timely manner about his decision not to have his name disclosed to the public at large.

For information, please find herewith a copy of the Committee's rules of procedure.

Yours sincerely,
